Decennial Committees on Local Government Efficiency Act

On June 10, 2022, the Illinois General Assembly enacted PA 102-1088 creating the “Decennial Committees on Local Government Efficiency Act).

The purpose of the act requires certain units of local government to (1) form a committee to study local efficiencies and (2) create and file with the county board a report with recommendations regarding efficiencies and increased accountability.

The committee must have 2 residents of the governmental unit who are appointed by the chair of the board.

If you would like to serve on this committee, please reach out to Director Karolyn Wessel at 630 213 5001 or via email at kwessel@bartlettlibrary.org
